

TROOP ONE VISITS ADVENTURE BASE 100

Troop 1 visited Adventure Base 100, the national travelling display that features the 100th anniversary of Boy Scouting in America. The display, which was located on the Louisville waterfront as part of the Kentucky Derby Festival, included a museum and other components.

Even though the cool rain held the crowds down for the event, it did not dampen the enthusiasm of the Scouts as they visited the museum.

The displays tracked the history of Scouting from its 1910 inception until today. There were several interactive computer programs that tested the visitors' skills and knowledge on various aspects of the Scouting program.

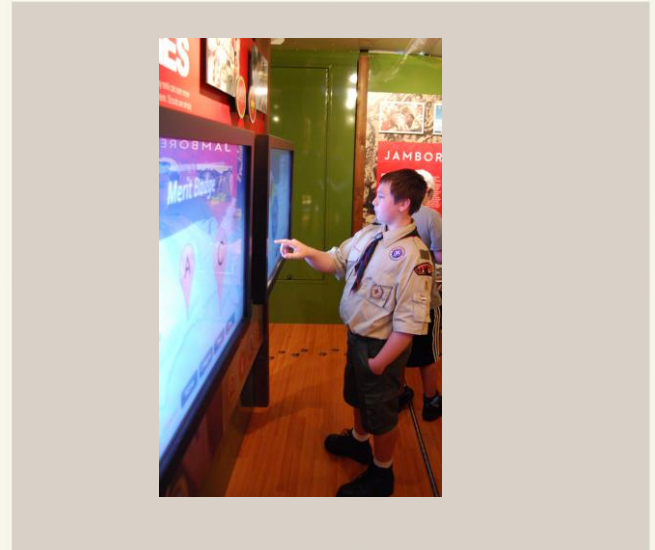

The visit to the Adventure Base counts as meeting one of the requirements of the new Scouting Heritage Merit Badge which was unveiled this month. The display leaves Louisville to continue its journey across the nation.

SUMMER CANOE TRIP

The troop has many more activities planned for the upcoming weeks.

The troop is planning on a canoe and kayak trip the first weekend of June. It will probably be on either the Blue River near Fredericksburg or the Green River near Mammoth Cave National Park in Kentucky.

Next week we will have a program on the 1937 flood as part of Jonathan's Eagle project.

TROOP PREPARES TO VISIT WRIGHT PATTERSON AIR FORCE BASE

The troop will be visiting Wright Patterson Air Force Base as part of its May 15 & 16 trip to Dayton, Ohio. This is shaping up to be an outstanding trip. We will be guests of the 455th airlift group where the troop will get to tour a working Galaxy C-5, the largest military aircraft in the world.

We will also be visiting the National Air Force Museum that features one of the truly outstanding aviation exhibits in the world. We hope to tour the special annex which includes the presidential aircraft.

The troop will be camping on the base itself that weekend. We will have access to the bowling alley, swimming pool, gym and other base recreational facilities. If you have not signed up, please bring in your ten dollar fee by next Wednesday.
